GOVERNOR FLORIO TO ADDRESS NEW JERSEY IN HISTORIC TV BROADCAST

Governor Florio will deliver a live prime-time televised speech to the people of New Jersey at 8:00 p.m. next Wednesday, August 15. He will talk about his property tax relief program, and the state's serious financial problems that prompted action in recent months.

This is believed to be the first time a Governor of New Jersey ever has addressed the state in this manner. The broadcast will be emanating from the studios of WWOR TV (Channel 9) in Secaucus, which has agreed to provide air time and to produce the telecast. WWOR-TV has also asked KYW-TV in Philadelphia (Ch. 3) to air the speech simultaneously.
