	July 1: Gov. Kean announces to acquire l Performing Center (PAC	land for Arts	Spring: EDA sells $21 million in bonds to acquire land for PAC		October 28: Gov. Florio breaks ground for PAC using $40 million from ERF
NEWARK	1989	1989		1991		1993
		1990		1992				1997
		$900,000 Commitment to E		Economic	May 28: Gov. Florio signs Economic Recovery Fund (ERF) law			October 18: Gov. Whitman attends PAC grand opening ceremony
					Spring: Gov. Florio announces NJ Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency (HMFA) moving to Roebling Complex
					County Freeholders vote to building,		ves into renovated which wins ural Digest award
TRENTON					1993		1996
		1990				1994	1994
		CRDA Board approves $3.3 million commitment to Roebling Supermarket; EDA committed to surrounding complex				May 9: Thunder plays its first game in waterfront stadium

February 28:

Aquarium opens

Fall:

GE Aerospace/ Martin Marietta moves into new manufacturing building

October 27:

President George Bush signs bill amending the Delaware River Port Authority (DRPA) pact to allow economic development projects

December 17:

Gov. Florio announces agreement on 25,000-seat amphitheater partnership with Sony Music/PACE

January 13:

Gov. Whitman announces State will not participate in deal to bring 76ers to state.

July 8:

Gov. Whitman announces construction beginning on Sony Music/PACE amphitheater

DRPA's One Port Center opens

CAMDEN

1988

December:

State appropriates $32

million to build Aquarium;

Gov. Kean breaks ground

1992

1994

1996

1987

December 15:

Gov. Kean press conference: NJSEA builds Aquarium

1991

March 20:

Gov. Florio signs Letter of Intent; $10 million for GE Aerospace complex

1993

DRPA commits to new headquarters designed by architect Michael Graves

Spring:

GE Aerospace/Martin Marietta moves into new office building

December 15:

Gov. Florio and Philadelphia 76ers President Harold Katz announce deal to bring Sixers to new arena in Camden

1995

Amphitheater opens

Spring:

CRDA commits $11.1 million to acquire land for Atlantic City Corridor Development

July 1:

Gov. Florio signs law creating Parking Tax, and $100 million hotel fund at the CRDA

December 6:

Treasurer approves CRDA sale of parking assessment bonds for Corridor project

May 1:

Convention Center hotel open; also 1,747 new hotel rooms open

1993

1997

ATLANTIC CITY

1992

January 13:

Gov. Florio signs law committing NJSEA to build convention center in Atlantic City

January 13:

Gov. Florio signs room tax in Atlantic City to market city

October:

Convention Center Site Preparation bids awarded, construction begins 1994

Spring:

CRDA contracts with Doubletree/Caesers for $100 million convention center hotel